

FACT SHEET

LONG BIO

Claire Leggett has loved dragons, magic and everything fantastical since she read The Enchanted Wood by Enid Blyton. As a child she used to sneak to the bottom of the garden in the hope of finding fairies. Alas she never found any, so she brought them alive in her own imagination. Her stories are full of magic, adventure and escape.

When Claire's not writing she can be found creating her own handmade journals, swinging on a sidecar, or in the garden attempting to grow something other than weeds.

Claire lives in Western Australia with her husband, who loves even her most annoying quirks, and is currently learning how to crochet.

SHORT BIO

Claire Leggett writes stories full of magic, adventure and escape with heroines who save the world.

MEDIUM BIO

Claire Leggett writes stories full of magic, adventure and escape. She loves all magical creatures though her favourite is the dragon.
